

After completing the profile, your teacher will guide you through the completion of the triple-Venn diagram below that will help you compare and contrast three different athlete stories and identify the similarities and differences in their experiences.

