

GUIDED DISCUSSION ASSESSMENT RUBRIC

Student name/s:

	Not Yet - 0 points	Fair - 1 point	Good - 2 points	Great - 3 points
Preparedness and organisation	The presenter/s were unprepared and disorganised.	The presenter/s had done some preparation but were somewhat disorganised.	The presenter/s were mostly well prepared and organised.	The presenter/s were very well prepared and organised.
Clarity in communication	The presenter/s appeared very confused and were unable to communicate key messages clearly.	The presenter/s were quite confused in communicating key messages.	The presenter/s were occasionally confused in communicating key messages.	The presenter/s communicated in a clear and concise manner.
Evidence of Research	The presenter/s didn't conduct enough research and didn't have any sources, or sources weren't relevant.	The presenter/s had conducted research and had a some relevant sources.	The presenter/s had conducted some research and had a good range of relevant sources.	The presenter/s had clearly conducted research and had a great range of relevant sources.
Interest	The presentation did not contain facts or figures that might make it interesting for the audience.	The guided discussion contained facts, figures, and/or word choices that make it occasionally interesting to the audience.	The guided discussion contained facts, figures, and/or word choices that made it mostly interesting to the audience.	The guided discussion contained facts, figures, and/or word choices that made it exceptionally interesting to the audience.
Graphics - Effectiveness and Relevance	Graphics lack effectiveness and relevance. Images include multiple vocabulary or spelling errors.	Graphics are somewhat effective but may include vocabulary or spelling errors.	Graphics are adequate, easy to read, and relevant to the content.	Graphics are of excellent quality, easy to read, and relevant to the content.
Audience engagement	The presenter/s were unable to answer most questions from the audience, demonstrating poor knowledge of the topic and insufficient research.	The presenter/s were able to answer some questions from the audience, demonstrating some knowledge of the topic and fair research.	The presenter/s were able to answer most questions from the audience, demonstrating some knowledge of the topic and fair research.	The presenter/s were able to answer any questions from the audience, demonstrating good knowledge of the topic and thorough research.