

Scientific Report Assessment Rubric

Student name/s:

	Not Yet - 0 points	Fair - 1 point	Good - 2 points	Great - 3 points
Introduction	Does not give any information about what to expect in the report.	Gives some information, or gives too much information, almost like a summary.	A fair amount of information.	Presents a concise introduction to the report.
Purpose	Does not address why the research was conducted.	Includes some information about why the research was conducted.	Includes sufficient information about why the research was conducted.	Comprehensively addresses the reasons for conducting the research and leaves the reader wanting to know more.
Procedure (description of planning and data collection process)	Fails to describe how the research was conducted.	Describes some of the steps involved; however, there is either a lack of information or information is confused.	Describes most of the steps involved; there is some information missing or some of the information is confused.	Clearly and adequately describes all the steps involved.
Presentation of data	Data is poorly presented or information is missing.	Some data is graphically presented; however there is either a lack of information or information is confused.	Most data is graphically presented; there is some information missing or some of the information is confused.	Data is clearly and adequately presented in a range of graphical forms.
Results and conclusion	Presents an illogical explanation for findings.	Presentation of findings is somewhat confused.	Presentation of findings is clear although some information is missing.	Presents a clear and logical explanation for findings.
Grammar and spelling	Very frequent grammar and/or spelling errors that detract from the experience of reading the report.	Several grammar and/or spelling errors that somewhat detract from the experience of reading the report.	Few grammar and/or spelling errors that do not detract from the experience of reading the report.	No grammar and/or spelling errors.
Overall presentation	The report is not very appealing in terms of design, layout, and neatness.	Some elements of the report are appealing in terms of design, layout, and neatness.	The report is appealing in terms of design, layout, and neatness.	The report is very appealing in terms of design, layout, and neatness.

Notes:

