

AIME

JACK MANNING BANCROFT

CEO AND FOUNDER OF AIME

- Founder & Executive Producer of IMAGI-NATION(TV)
- Lead Designer of IMAGI-NATION suite of tools, techniques & philosophies
- Puppeteer
- Proud Indigenous Australian from the Bundjalung nation.

AUTHOR:

The Eagle Inside

The Mentor

Mentoring - The Key to a Fairer World

In 2005, at age 19, founded AIME, a cost-effective and scalable mentoring model that brings university students together as volunteers to mentor marginalised and minority high school kids so that they complete high school successfully, go on to university and ultimately, into fulfilling careers.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION:

- 2016 - Youngest person in Australian history to receive an Honorary Doctorate
- 2016 - Honorary Fellowship from Western Sydney University
- 2014 - MJ Bale's Man of Character
- 2013 - Stanford Australia Foundation Dyson Bequest Scholarship to attend Stanford University's flagship Executive Program.
- 2013 - Australia's Happy Harold Education Award
- 2010 - Australian Human Rights Medal
- 2010 - GQ Man of Inspiration
- 2010 - New South Wales Young Australian of the Year
- 2010 - University of Sydney Young Alumni of the Year

Holds a BA in Media and Communications from the University of Sydney.