

Brainstorm questions - event

You are tasked with creating an event where you can share with your class or community about your chosen issue.

Before you begin, answer these questions:

What kind of event could we run at our school?

What would happen at our event?

What would make this event relevant or interesting to the people in our school?

What other ideas do you have about this action?