

Brainstorm questions - short film

You are tasked with creating a short film to share with your class or community on your chosen issue.

Before you begin, answer these questions:

What kind of film would we make and why? (E.g. story, documentary)

What would happen in our film?

What would make our film relevant or interesting to the people in our school?

What other ideas do you have about this action?